TO THE PUBLIC.

THE people of Vigo and adjoining Counties are invited to attend at the Vigo Agricultural Society's Fair Grounds during the week beginning September 9th, 1878.

The object is to exhibit the products of the industry and skill of the people—and to give rewards to the meritorious.

Examine the List of Regular and Special Premiums, and then get your articles ready for exhibition. It will be a good place to advertise your business.

The manufacturers and dealers are urged to show their products and articles for sale.

Five Thousand Dollars are offered in Premiums. The Fair must be self-supporting. After paying the necessary expenses, if there is not sufficient to pay the premiums in full they will be paid "pro rata." No charge will be made for entries except in the speed ring.

The purses for speed will be paid in full. A charge of Ten per cent. will be made, and four entries required,

The Fair Grounds are delightfully located, with plenty of shade, grass, water, and ample building for all purposes.

There will be a race each afternoon, a Balloon Ascension, and other interesting performances. Amusement and instruction will be combined. Come, bring all the family, and spend two or three days in recreation.

ENTRIES.

1. The Secretary's office will be open in Terre Haute for entries on the Saturday immediately preceding the Fair.

All entries must be made on Monday, and the forenoon of Tuesday, except in case of unavoidable accident or delay, and no entries will be made after Tuesday 1 P. M., except bread, butter, cakes and pies, which may be entered until 2 P. M., Wednesday, and for trials of speed, which must be made on or before Monday, September 2d:

2. There will be no charge for entries except for trials of speed, for which a charge of ten per cent. will be made.

3. Entries must, in all cases, be made on the Secretary's book, and the entry ticket properly attached, before the articles or animals will be entitled to a place within the enclosure, and no article can be removed from the ground until the close of the Fair.

4. No article can compete for more than one premium, unless as a part of a collection in same class. No animal will be allowed to compete for more than one premium except as it may compete in matches and pairs, and in the trotting and running matches for purses.

5. No animal will be allowed to be entered in the name of any other person than the bona-fide owner or his agent; and if any should be entered in violation of this rule, they will not be permitted to receive a premium, although awarded them by the judges.

6. No animal or article will be allowed to compete for a premium when it has taken two premiums in succession for the same purpose.

7. Any person knowingly exhibiting an animal or article under false pretenses shall forfeit all premiums awarded.

Persons who know of any such entries are urgently requested to notify the officers.

8. Articles for which no premiums are offered will be entered in the classes to which they naturally belong, as non-enumerated, and will be passed upon by the committees in those classes, and awards published, but no premiums paid.

9. Competition will be open to all, except as otherwise provided herein.

10. Exhibitors are required to furnish a list of all collections of fruit and vegetables and to have each variety labeled, and persons exhibiting stock are required to post cards on stalls and pens, giving names, breed, age, etc. of animals. The name of the exhibitor will be placed on each card.

Persons not complying with this rule will forfeit their premiums.

Exhibitors are required to comply with the necessary regulations of the Superintendent.

Persons having articles of merit and not wishing to compete for premiums, may place the same on exhibition without entering them.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1. The Board will carefully preserve all articles while on exhibition during the Fair, but will not be responsible for any losses or accidents that may occur.

2. No person will be allowed in the ring when animals are being exhibited, except the proper committee, grooms, Superintendents and reporters.

Articles receiving first premiums will be designated by a red ribbon. Second premium, blue.

3. The Board of Directors will meet each morning at 9 o'clock during the week of the Fair. They will appoint all officers committees and agents for the occasion; hear and decide all questions affecting the rights of exhibitors or the duties of employes, and will have general supervision of the exhibition, and all differences between committees and exhibitors in regard to the rules and regulations will be referred to the board at their office on the Fair Grounds, when in session.

4. The Secretary and Treasurer will keep their offices near the entrance to the Fair Grounds during the week of the Fair, and will be ready to do business at all reasonable hours of the day,

5. The Superintendent will provide for the wants of exhibitors; receive, arrange and keep in order, everything connected therewith; see that good order is maintained within the enclosure, and keep the Board well advised of everything connected with the exhibition. He will be aided in the discharge of these duties by assistants; the several duties of whom shall be to attend especially to the departments assigned to them.

6. An efficient police force will be on the ground day and night

7. Ample arrangements will be made in the way of pens, stalls, feed and bedding for stock, but exhibitors will be required to pay fair rates for all grain, meal and hay used by them.

No exhibitor will be allowed, personally to have access to the books of the Secretary during the Fair. but may, on proper application, have such explanations as are necessary, made by the Secretary.

The Poultry Department will be managed by the Terre Haute Poultry Association.

The Fruit, Flower and Cookery Departments will be arranged by the Terre Haute Horticultural Society.

STANDS, SHOWS, Etc.

The price of refreshment stands has been fixed at $10.00 for the Fair; Melon Wagons, Small Dealers and Target Guns, $1.00 per day. Swings, $5.00.

No Gambling or Liquor selling allowed.

The committee on stands will be at the grounds on Friday morning before the Fair, when places can be secured. One-half of the fee must be paid when the grounds are engaged, and the other half on Tuesday morning.

No one will be allowed to sell until the whole fee is paid.

Small articles for exdibition when it is inconvenient for the owners to go to the grounds, can be left at the store of V. G. Dickhout Sup't of Miscellaneous Hall.

Persons occupying refreshment stands will not be allowed to sell intoxicating drinks. Any person violating this rule will forfeit his right to sell, and will be expelled from the grounds. The General Superintendent is instructed to have this rule strictly enforced.

No Premium will be paid, or award published, for any fruits, vegetables, or grain, either single or in collections, that have not been grown by the individual entering the same, or his authorized agent Complaint being entered against any person for violating this, an investigation may be had, and he qualified by oath.

Exhibitors of stock will be required to keep their stalls open and their stock accessible to visitors, at all reasonable hours during the Fair.

Exhibitors and visitors will take notice that no change whatever will be made in the foregoing rules and regulations, or in the instructions to agents, but that they will be strictly adhered to in every particular.

All premiums will be paid on Tuesday, September 17th.

AWARDING COMMITTEES.

1. Awarding Committees will be selected and notified before the Fair. Persons thus appointed will please be punctually on the grounds at the appointed time

A majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

The committee, if not satisfied as to the regularity of an entry will apply to the Secretary for information.

2. A premium will not be awarded when the article is not worthy.

3. The committees on animals will have regard to symmetry, early maturity, size and general charactersitics of the breed which they judge. They will make proper allowances for age, feeding, etc. but will not give encouragement to over-fed animals in breeding classes.

4. No premium will be awarded to barren females exhibited in breeding classes.

5. The standard authority in all cases of pedigree cattle shall be the English and American Herd Book; and for horses, the English and American Stud Book and American Turf Register.

6. Committees are instructed not to divide out premiums among exhibitors—but, in all cases, to award the premium to the best articles. The committees will be expected to give their reasons for their decisions, embracing the valuable and desirable qualities of the animals or articles to which premiums are awarded—in fruits, to give lists of collections in which they award premiums. And as one great object of the society is to collect valuable information upon the subjects connected with agriculture, the several awarding committees are requested to gather all the information possible from exhibitors in their respective departments, and make their reports as full as circumstances will permit.

7. Each committee will make its report of awards to the Secretary at the business office as early as possible after its completion.

8. The decision of the several committees will be final and irrevocable in regard to the premiums awarded.

9. Any improper interference with the duties of awarding committees will be properly reported to the business office, and awards will be withheld for this reason; but, when called upon by the proper committees, exhibitors are requested to give all information in their possession to facilitate the labors of the committee

☞ It is generally desirable that every exhibitor determine fully in what class and section he desires to compete before making application for entries.

ADMISSION.

1. Single tickets, 25 cents each, good for one admission only, will be taken up at the gate and no check issued in return. Children under fifteen years of age, 10 cents. Vehicles with two horses will be charged 25 cents. Vehicles with one horse will be charged 15 cents Saddle horses will be charged 10 cents.

2. Stockholders will be furnished with cards by the Secretary, admitting themselves, their wives and minor children free.

3. Officers of other Agricultural and Horticultural Societies and members of the Press are invited to attend as guests of the Society.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF VIGO AGRICULTURAL FAIR GROUNDS, ADOPTED JULY 16, 1867.

1. The grounds shall be under the management and control of the Directors of the Agricultural Society, and all rules and regulations for the government of the same shall be made by it, subject to the approval by the County Commissioners.

2. No person shall be allowed to hunt or shoot birds, squirrels or other game within the enclosure of the grounds, nor carry firearms for such purpose, except to engage in trap shooting at caged birds.

3. No person shall be allowed to hitch or tie any horse, mare mule or other animal to any of the trees or saplings growing within the enclosure of the Fair Grounds or to cut into or injure any growing tree or sapling contained therein, or mark or deface any of the bulldings.

4. No person shall be allowed or permitted to tie or hitch any horses, mares or other animals to the outside of the fence surrounding the Fair Grounds, nor to place any wagon, carriage, buggy, or other vehicle nearer than five feet of the same.

5. The Fair Grounds having been purchased by the people of Vigo county for the benefit of Agriculture, the Mechanic Arts, and the improvement of the breed of Domestic Animals, the grounds are hereby specially dedicated to the means necessary to accomplish these ends, and they shall always command a preference over all others in the use of the grounds

6. The grounds shall be open on proper occasions, to visitors from all parts of the county, and may be used by all classes of our citizens for such innocent and lawful amusements as is customary and proper, and without charge, except on the occasions of State, District and County Fairs, and trotting and other matches, when reasonable entrance or other fees may be charged by persons having the management thereof.

7. Racing, Trotting and Pacing matches, except during the weeks of State and District Fairs, shall be exclusively under the control and by the permission of the Agricultural Board, and that body alone, or a committee properly appointed, shall have the right to grant permits for trotting pacing and racing matches, under such restrictions as may be instituted by the Society.

8. No contracts for the occupation of the grounds for such matches shall ever be made with persons non-resident of Vigo county, or with those who are unknown to the Board, or its regularly constituted committees, and the Board reserves the right to declare any contract void, should the contracting occupants conduct these matches unfairly, or in a manner to bring discredit upon themselves, himself, or associates.

9. No charge shall be made for the use of the grounds to Sunday school associations, benevolent societies. Fourth of July celebrations picnics from town or country, nor to those who seek pleasant and innocent amusements without the hope or design of pecuniary gain. The gates remain freely open to the people of the county, of all classes, and without reference to sect, party, or condition, except as provided above.

10. Gambling, by the use of cards, dice, roulette tables, and all other devices of whatsoever nature is absolutely and forever prohibited on the Fair Grounds, and persons offending against this rule shall be promptly arrested and handed over to the civil authorities, to be dealt with according to law.

11. The ground shall not be open on Sunday for trotting, pacing or running, nor for practice, the same being considered a violation of the Christian Sabbath and calculated to lead to abuses which all good citizens should discourage.

BY-LAWS.

SECTION 1. The Directors shall annually elect a committee of three who shall have charge of letting the grounds for picnics, celebrations, etc. and the sale of the stands and booths.

SEC. 2. They shall charge and collect a reasonable price for the privilege of stands, shows, etc., used for pecuniary gain, or they may at their discretion sell the privilege of all the stands to parties who have charge of celebrations, etc.

SEC. 3. An itemized account shall be kept of all collections, and report made from time to time to the Directors.

SEC. 4. The committee may employ a suitable person or persons to attend to collection of rents.
